

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES GRADUATE FACULTY
Penn State University at Harrisburg, 777 West Harrisburg Pike
Middletown, PA 17057
<http://www.hbg.psu.edu/bsed>

The Behavioral Sciences Graduate Faculty is a very diverse group of faculty members, many of whom have national and international recognition in their respective fields. Some of the disciplines represented include, sociology, psychology, applied behavior analysis, human development and family studies, counseling, and community psychology and social change. A description of research and professional interests follow for each faculty member. CONTACT: Behavioral Sciences, The Pennsylvania State University at Harrisburg, W-311 Olmsted Building, 777 West Harrisburg Pike, Middletown, PA. 17057 – 717-948-6034. <http://www.hbg.psu.edu/bsed>

Holly Angelique, Ph.D. (Community Psychology), Michigan State University, Associate Professor. hxa11@psu.edu. Political empowerment and activism, environmental movements, feminism, and social change.

Michael Becker, Ph.D. (Social Psychology), SUNY Albany, Associate Professor. dzx@psu.edu. Type A behavior and human sexuality, interpersonal attraction and romantic relationships.

Thomas Bowers, Ph.D. (Psychology), Virginia Tech. Associate Professor. dvo@psu.edu. Neuropsychology, learning disorders, types of dementia processes, research on psychotherapy and addictive behaviors.

Gina M. Brelsford, Ph.D. (Clinical Psychology), Bowling Green State University. Assistant Professor. gmy103@psu.edu. Spiritual Disclosure in family relationships, triangulation of God in the family, human flourishing related to spirituality, parent-child relationship conflict and psychological outcomes for children.

Barbara Bremer, Ph.D. (Psychology), Bryn Mawr College. Associate Professor. bab12@psu.edu. Health psychology, medical outcomes assessment, quality of life, spirituality, medical decision-making surrounding the end of life, women's health, & family violence.

Ken Cunningham, Ph.D. (Sociology), City University of New York – Graduate Center. Associate Professor. kuc1@psu.edu. Critical approaches to U.S. foreign policy and militarism, U.S. political culture, social movements and social change processes, social theory.

Richard Fiene, Ph.D. (Developmental Psychology), Newport University. Associate Professor. rjf8@psu.edu. Child care quality, public policy and children, youth and families, community based research, infant development.

Richard Foxx, Ph.D. (Psychology), Southern Illinois University. Professor. rmf4@psu.edu. Use of behavioral principles to treat individuals with autism, mental retardation, mental illness, emotional disturbances, and typical development.

Clemmie Gilpin, Ph.D. (Community Systems), Penn State University. Assistant Professor. ceg5@psu.edu. Afro-American studies, aging, and conflict resolution.

Kamini Maraj Grahame, Ph.D. (Sociology and Equity Studies), University of Toronto. Associate Professor. kmg16@psu.edu. Gender, race/ethnicity and class particularly in relationship to immigrants, globalization, trans-national families and transformations in women's work, and institutional ethnography.

Senel Poyrazli, Ph.D. (Counseling Psychology), University of Houston. Associate Professor. poyrazli@psu.edu. College student adjustment process and cross-cultural counseling, acculturative stress, psychosocial and academic adjustment among international college students, acculturation experiences of immigrants.

Kimberly Schreck, Ph.D. (Psychology; Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities), Ohio State University. Associate Professor. kas24@psu.edu. Autism, mental retardation/developmental disabilities, early intervention, childhood sleep disorders.

Maria Turkson, Ph.D. (Counseling Psychology), University of Maryland. Assistant Professor. mat17@psu.edu. Therapist self-care, therapy relationship between client and therapist, career development, and women's issues.

Xu Xu, Ph.D. (Psychology), Northern Illinois University. Assistant Professor. xux10@psu.edu. Relationship between language and thinking, abstract concept representation, processing of figurative language.